FOR SUBWAY ACCIDENT. New York City Bureau of Combusti bles "Severely Censured."

New York, Oct. 26.-A coroner's jury tonight failed to hold any one criminally responsible for the subway accident in which eight persons lost their lives at Seventh avenue and Twenty-Fourti, street last September 22. It rested in a cave-in folowing what the jury held to be an excessive blast of explosives in an excavation for a new subway.

While criminal negligence was not shown, the jury held, the city bureau of combustibles was "severely censured" for not inspecting the work in ac-
